This letter refers to your application for permanent residence under the spouse or common-law partner in Canada class.

We are pleased to advise you that processing of your application has been completed. The Canada Immigration Centre in EYOBUCONE will contact you concerning your permanent resident status.

Please note: At the time of your appointment, you and your family members, if any, will be required to present the original identification document(s) to the Canada Immigration Centre. A final decision concerning the granting of permanent residence status will be made at that time. If permanent residence is granted, the name that will appear on the confirmation of permanent resident document is your name as it appears on your passport or identity documents.

The client number in the top right-hand corner of this letter is your personal identification number; it lets people see and use information about you that is on your immigration file. To protect yourself, you should not let anyone else use it. When you send a letter or fax to us, please include your personal identification number.

If you change your address, please tell us immediately by calling the Citizenship and Immigration Canada Call Centre at 1-888-242-2250, or on the internet at http://www.cic.gc.ca. You can also get general information and application kits from the Call Centre or on the internet. If you require further assistance, please phone the Call Centre and be ready to give your client number and your date of birth.
